

163-173 McEvoy Street Alexandria NSW

Alex Collective comprises of extraordinary apartments with an industrial spirit, designed by architect visionary Andrew Burns.

Positioned on the city fringe in the heart of Sydney's vibrant Alexandria suburb and inspired by its industrial heritage, Alex Collective features a collection of warehouse-inspired lofts, maisonettes and penthouses.

Alex Collective's four architecturally striking buildings stand proudly at four and seven/eight storeys integrating sawtooth roofs, light wells and sky bridges. The intricate brickwork buildings surround a green heart garden with cabana styled seating flanked by a magnesium pool, designed by Landscape Architects Site Image Group.

Three retail spaces are also positioned on the Ground
